It might be noted in connection with this case that Senator Joseph R. McCarthy in his appearance before the U. S. Senate on February 20, 1950 made the following statements:

"Case No. 65. This individual was with the CIA. He signed Communist Party petitions in which he alleged that he was a member thereof, as did his parents also. On November 4, 1941, the Civil Service Commission recommended his removal from the Government. This was never acted upon. He is still in the State Department and has been given top clearance."

Senator McCarthy subsequently identified Case No. 65 as
